

Mainstreaming Adaptation to Climate Change in the Caribbean

Mainstreaming Adaptation to Climate Change in the Caribbean

- Follow up project to CPACC
- Approved for processing on an exception basis by GEF based on track record of CPACC and expected to play a pioneering role for island nations
- Request for GEF funding for $4.5 million

MACC

- (a) Mainstreaming adaptation to climate change in national development planning and public and private investment decisions.
- A key activity of the project will be the work with key sectors (such as water supply, agriculture, forestry, land use planning) to incorporate climate change impact and risk assessment in their ongoing programs and long-term planning.

Mainstreaming:

- in fresh water supply
- in fisheries
- in agriculture
- in land use planning and disaster management

MACC

- (b) Assisting Institutional and Technical Support mechanisms:
 - (i) Assisting participating countries with Stage II adaptation under the UNFCCC:
 - assessment of pilots for adaptation;
 - coastal vulnerability assessments;
 - (ii) Support and coordination for the preparation of the 2nd National Communications
 - regional agenda on adaptation
 - (iii) Mainstreaming through a Permanent Institutional Mechanism to Address GCC in the Caribbean

MACC

- (c) Expand GCC monitoring and impact assessment as a basis for national and regional level decision making on adaptation. The following activities will be supported:
 - strengthen monitoring network
 - wider geographical coverage;
 - integration of global and Caribbean networks
 - increased scope of measurements and data collection
 - downscaling global model
 - modeling under climate change scenarios

MACC:

- (d) Cross-regional Dissemination and Replication
- Under this component, the project will undertake activities to facilitate replication by disseminating results and lessons learned to other regions. Specifically, the project will support efforts aimed at disseminating mainstreaming activities in the Caribbean, to Pacific Island Nations and other low lying areas.
 - Replication study for CPACC-MACC for the Pacific and other island nations
 - Consultative workshop on adaptation
 - Cross-regional dissemination tools
